

NO HOPE FOR CHINA IN YUAN

NEW MADE CABINET CRUMBLES
—FIGHT ON AT NANKIN—

Peking Cabinet Melts Away as Soon as Yuan Shih Kai's Name Is Mentioned. People Think Premier Is Too Fond of the Throne Government Can't Pay Troops. Rebels Have Cash.

London, Nov. 18.—The Times in a dispatch from Peking says that Yuan Shih Kai, apparently in deference to adverse criticism, has substituted Gen. T'ang Yung Yen, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting. He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

It seems hourly more questionable whether Yuan will prove to be the savior for whom China has been waiting.

He possesses the confidence of his own immediate adherents completely, but a large section of the people are most suspicious because of his loyalty to the throne.

Yuan Shih Kai, named as President of the Board of Foreign Affairs, is one who has refused to become a member of Yuan Shih Kai's Cabinet.

were flocking to that port from Hankow. The steamship brought the stories of many witnesses of bloody incidents.

Li Sheng-tai, Yokohama, who went with a deputation from Hankow and Wu-chang to rescue the missionaries and other foreigners, said the city gates were closed, but when the foreigners clamored for admittance the gates were opened suddenly and a large number of captured Manchus were dragged out by their hair and beheaded. Their heads were buried at the feet of the delegates. The gates were then closed again and the foreigners went back to tell what they had seen.

On the city wall a number of rebel soldiers watched for Manchus trying to escape with ropes. Those attempting to flee were riddled with bullets as they lowered themselves. Suzora saw a Manchu officer who had paid a coolie $15,000 for a sampan dragged ashore and beheaded.

At a place near Hankow where foreign firms left their premises the rebels caught a gang of looters, beheaded them and nailed their hands to the doors of stores and dwellings, with signs telling of the fate other robbers would meet. A Manchu who had boarded a Japanese river boat was making his way to the cabin when rebels came on board, seized him and led him back to the city gate, where he was beheaded. His head was stuck on a pole. A policeman who failed to stop looters was decapitated and his head was placed in a basket, over which a placard was placed saying that the head was that of a policeman.

The Han-yang arsenal was captured by a clever ruse. Several hundred insurgents crossed the river in sampans and rushed to the gates of the arsenal, shouting they were loyal troops and were escaping from Wu-chang. The gates were thrown open, and once in the rebels put back their white bandages. Resistance was not made and the arsenal fell without a shot having been fired.

The Canada Maru, brought news also of the murder of two foreign missionaries in Szechuen. A Cheng-ta correspondent of the Shanghai Press said: "Two foreign missionaries have been murdered, one of the American Methodist mission and the other of the Canadian Methodist mission. I do not know their names. Both were stabbed."

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—The cruisers California, South Dakota and Maryland arrived in the bay today from San Diego and proceeded to California City to take on coal. The West Virginia and Colorado, which are still in the south, will arrive in a few days and then all the vessels will sail for Honolulu.

While there have been persistent rumors that the cruisers would be sent to Chinese waters there is no confirmation here of the report. A Navy Department spokesman said that the only orders so far received indicate that the ships will not go beyond Hawaii, and the cruise is not expected to last more than six or seven weeks. It is presumed that a crisis in Chinese affairs is at hand, and that the ships are being sent to the Pacific to keep them in Honolulu until the trouble in the Orient is past.

It is said here that the ships are not in the best shape for a long trip.

Ever Sturgeon, an editor of Grand Forks N. D., who was a passenger on the Pacific Mail liner, which arrived from Hongkong today, was a witness to the burning and looting of Hankow.

"I had a room in a hotel at Hankow, and when fighting began I seized a rifle to help protect foreigners in case of attack, but it was needless precaution, as the city did not at any time show any anti-foreign sentiment. The burning of the city was a remarkable sight."

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

He said that the city was a remarkable sight. He said that the city was a remarkable sight.

SUFFRAGETTES IN A TANTRUM

PLAN TO RAISE CAIN IN PARLIAMENT SQUARE TUESDAY.

Asked Asquith to Abandon His Manhood Measure He Just Wouldn't. So They'll Raid the Commons Again.

London, Nov. 17.—The evening of November 21, which is next Tuesday, promises to bring forth a lurid and violent demonstration in Parliament Square.

The demonstration of women, called today upon the Prime Minister and the Chancellor of the Exchequer, left the Ministers in white hot duce and prepared at once a bloodcurdling call to action which has since been issued.

It announces that a deputation of women will go to the House of Commons on Tuesday to protest against the bill enfranchising all men and excluding all women.

The war cry is signed by Mrs. Lawrence, who will head the deputation. The conclusion of the announcement and summons is as follows:

"Men, women will be there by thousands. Come to Parliament square to see fair play and protect the women from being brutally victimized by the police as they were on November 18, 1910, when as they result of illusage one woman died and many were seriously injured."

The occasion will afford Reginald McKenna, the new Home Secretary, an opportunity to show his mettle for the first time since he took over the Home Office from Winston Churchill, the police being under the control of his department.

Premier Asquith and Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd George received a deputation today of women representing a number of suffrage societies at the Government offices in Downing street.

A large crowd of women assembled in Whitehall and cheered the deputation, and Downing street itself was strongly guarded by a large force of police. Mrs. Asquith and Mrs. Lloyd George were interested listeners to the addresses made by the women.

Miss Christabel Pankhurst, daughter of the first speaker, she told the Premier and the Chancellor of the Exchequer that their societies demanded that the Government make the question of woman suffrage really a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

They refused to accept a party one. They refused to accept a party one.

RAIN HALTS TRIPOLI WAR.

Floods Destroy Italian Works and Limit Fighting to Artillery Sniping.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

London, Nov. 17.—There are many belated reports from Tripoli, but the one important happening seems to be the continued semi-tropical rain and the consequent floods.

It is said that the Italian trenches at Bu-Meliana Springs have been swept away and a lake formed around the water works. A temporary river rushes from the lake toward the sea through the town.

It is evident that both the Italian and Turkish forces are greatly hampered. Sniping with cannon seems to be the only form of fighting at present taking place.

The censorship is more rigid than ever. Youssouf Bey, the Turkish Parliament Deputy at Benghazi, announces the impending arrival there of the Sheikh of the Senussi to stir up the Arabs.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—The following message was received at the Italian Embassy today:

TRIPOLI, Nov. 17.—Last night the weather was very bad. There was no action on the part of the enemy. Today there was a short cannonade on the eastern front. It seems to confirm the opinion of the Turkish and Arabian forces at Ain Zara.

The health of our troops is very good. At Derna today, where new forces were landed, a few gun shots were fired.

ON THE LUSITANIA.

Charles Dana Gibson and Brother of Lord Camoys Coming Here.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 17.—Among the passengers who sail for New York on the steamship Lusitania to-morrow are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Glasgow, A. C. James, C. T. Russell and the Hon. Edward Maurice Stonor, brother of Lord Camoys, who is to marry Miss Mildred Sherman.

CASTAWAYS DEAD IN BOAT.

Probably All the Crew of British Steamer St. Bride Are Lost.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—A despatch to Lloyd from Cuxhaven says the British steamship St. Bride, from Hamburg for Norfolk, has foundered off Scharhorn.

A lifeboat belonging to the St. Bride containing two bodies was picked up at sea yesterday.

CAGE FOR CROWN PRINCE.

Kaiser Said to Have Given Her a Month's Detention for Reichstag Display.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—The Crown Prince Friedrich Wilhelm has been ordered to undergo a month's detention for his display of approval of criticism of the Government's Moroccan policy in the Reichstag on November 10.

REAL FLYING SQUADRONS.

Germany to Spend $1,500,000 to Organize Special Army Aeroplane System.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—It is announced that the Government will spend $1,500,000 for military aeroplanes in 1912. Germany will be divided into districts, each of which will have a flying squadron.

NEW CANAL SEEING COMMITTEE.

House of Representatives Appropriations Party at Panama.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

PANAMA, Nov. 17.—The House Committee on Appropriations arrived here from the United States last night and will spend a month investigating the work that is being done on the Panama Canal.

With our factory at Alexandria (Egypt), with branches at Cairo and Port Said (Egypt), Xanthia and Cavalla (Turkey), and sales agencies throughout the world, we have decided to place the Laurens cigarettes before the critical American public, so many of whom are their patrons during sojourns abroad. The cigarettes manufactured by Ed. Laurens need no commendation to the connoisseur and it is sufficient guarantee of the high quality of these cigarettes to state that they are made under the brands, formulæ and direct license of the parent company.

Ask any diplomat

LAURENS

THE CIGARETTE OF ROYALTY

15 cents package of ten

35 highest Awards at International Expositions

LAURENS

SEVENTH CLASS GERMAN QUAKE.

Seismic Shock Spreads Panic From the Alps as Far as Vienna.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—All parts of Saxony, Wurtemberg and south Germany suffered from an earthquake last night. Serious damage is reported from many points.

One of the towers of the Kaiser's castle at Burg Hohenzollern was split with fissures. At Augsburg houses tottered and the people fled into the streets. At Munich guests of the hotels fled into the streets in their night attire. At Stuttgart the audience and actors in the theatres became panic-stricken and rushed into the streets.

The occupants of the upper gallery of the Court Theatre at Mannheim made their escape down a ladder, while the players in their stage clothes ran into the street. At Freiburg the quake lasted fifty-five seconds. It was registered at the Geodetic Institute at Potsdam at 10:27 o'clock and lasted as only seconds. Later on the instruments were so much affected that they had to be dismounted.

Prof. Michael of the Royal Mining Academy says the quake was one of the severest class and was the severest felt in Germany in ten years.

The periphery of the earthquake extends from the Alps and Basel to Vienna.

Mocha Gloves—at Saks'

Gentlemen, give us your hand!

value 1.50.....today at 1.15

¶ The Mocha glove is a much wanted glove this season. Particularly for dress affairs. Its popularity is such, however, that many men are side-tracking the tan glove in its favor. Considered dressy enough for evening, it naturally looks dressy by day. But you want to be careful when you select a Mocha glove. It has chameleonic tendencies. There are whitish, pinkish, grayish and blue-grayish Mochas. But put your hand on the last one, for the blue-grayish Mocha is the Mocha for you, and it is blue-grayish Mochas that are offered in this sale. Only fifty dozen of them, but they are blue-grayish to a digit. Soft, warm, comfortable, well-made, stylish. Regular or cadet fingers. A dollar fifty as a rule—but today, at Saks', 1.15.

Hand-frame Knitted Scarfs

values 2.50 and 3.00.....today at 1.35

900 of them. In accordance and English crochets, and in a large range of patterns. The colorings, too, are fine, in solids and combinations. These are the self-same knitted scarfs that retail anywhere at 2.50 to 3.00 each. Phenomenal value and that's all there is to it.

Crochet Knitted Scarfs value 1.00.....today at 55c

2,400 of these crochet knitted scarfs, and that won't be too many when their value has circulated a little. Made in college stripes, and in effective four-color combinations. The best knitted dollar scarf ever sold.

Hemstitched Crossbar Handkerchiefs

value 75c. the half dozen.....today at 55c

There are 6,000 of these handkerchiefs, in hemstitched crossbar effects. They are especially good value.

Superior Hemstitched Crossbar Handkerchiefs

value 1.50 the half dozen.....today at 95c

6,000 of these also. But they are made with embroidered initials, and better quality, of course.

Saks & Company

Broadway at 34th Street